

Dare to Be in Business

PRESENTS

2011 SUMMER BUSINESS BREAKFAST ! Friday 2nd December
All welcome at The Old Butter Factory Café, Doepel St, Bellinghen.

SURVIVOR – BELLINGHEN BUSINESS

brings together two speakers with broad experience in business sustainability. Andrew Sommerville of HumanHand Pty Ltd and Stavros Koufis, Manager of Chess Employment in Bellinghen, both board members of the Bellinghen Chamber of Commerce, will outline what you can do to sustain yourself and your business in these changing times.

Andrew Sommerville, HumanHand HR Help

is well known in Bellinghen as Managing Director of HumanHand Pty Ltd and, as a vermiculturalist, the long time operator of Promised Land Worm Products.

Andrew is a management accountant, certified HR Coach, internal quality auditor and professional member of Australian Human Resource Institute (AHRI). Andrew helps local small to medium business owners and managers work through the challenges of compliance, manage business and staffing and position them for future growth.

Andrew has held the position as Chief Executive Officer of Open Arms Care Inc., as well as Executive Officer, Operations Manager and Admin Manager positions. Andrew has extensive experience with Community Services as well as small business and government sectors.

Andrew is also actively involved in many community groups and projects. He is very passionate about business sustainability, for the business, the staff and the hard working owner. Andrew is committed to practical, local recycling and developing self sustaining systems and business practices.

Stavros Koufis, CHESSE Employment Bellinghen began his career as a Publican, progressed through food retailing and Operations Manager for Large national Liquor Chain before switching to General Manager for National Educational Resources Company. He moved on to become Project Manager for ETC and now fills his current position as Manger of CHESSE Employment Bellinghen. Stavros is also a board member for Arms Care and his qualifications include Business, Business law, Education and Justice of the Peace.

Stavros grew up in Central West NSW and moved to Bellinghen Shire six years ago where his wife Donna's family, the Pettit's, have lived for generations. Donna, is an assistant school principle in Coffs Harbour and they have three children. Stavros also coaches junior Rugby Union, including his oldest son Jake, in Coffs Harbour.
