

Bellingen Business Builders

Feedback from our 'Just I Job' group last year was that the best part was the group camaraderie and the sharing of ideas and experience among business owners/managers.

So for 2012 BCoC will be running 'Bellingen Business Builders' groups. This is your chance to regularly meet with fellow Bellingen business people to network, learn, share experiences, do some planning and tap into the awesome combined brains trust.

This is an absolute must for business people. Stop, lift your eyes, see the bigger picture, share experiences confidentially with others who truly do understand. See what is working for others.
